SPEAKING OF *Playboy, author Patty Farmer is about to unfurl her new book, "Playboy on Stage: A History of the World's Sexiest Nightclubs." This is the saga of the famous Playboy clubs, which dotted the country — and the world — for decades.

That was before the bunny ears and tails lost their glossy coat. The book tells many tales, from many points of view — all about the bunnies, musicians, singers and comics and others involved in launching and maintaining the clubs.

This should be fun. Miss Farmer wrote "The Persian Room Presents," which chronicled that wonderful nightspot at the Plaza Hotel.

"Playboy on Stage" arrives on November 17th from Beaufort Books.
